Discussion:

Mr. Jeff Evans sent prayers out to Robin Alvey and her family as well as anyone suffering loss during the tornados.

4.c. Superintendent

Discussion:

Mr. Southard made his remarks beginning with recalling the events of the last week and all the devastation across our community as well as others. He took some time to drive around the county and see what the needs were and how to help. As a community we were very fortunate there were no losses of life, but the devastation is heartbreaking. On a bright note the community has come together and been very generous with money, household items, homes, etc. Some have even offered to move elsewhere so that displaced families may have a place to stay. There are no boundaries. Everyone is offering help in one form or the other. At our high school they normally do class competitions and take up money this time of year for Christmas wish. This year they are doing those competitions for Christmas with and tornado relief. At this time the high school has raised over $10,000 for those in need.

If front of each board member there is a card and bread from the architects as a Thank You for all you do. Decisions made sometimes put you as board members in a bad spot, but those are decisions I have made. I appreciate the support you give me. I do not make these decisions ever for financial gain. What we do and decide is for what's best for kids and we have to be open to do that. Nothing new on the construction updates. Preschool furniture did not come in yet but the kids will be in the new preschool edition come January. Covid has limited our recognitions and presentations for the board meetings but starting January we hope to start those back up.
